

Keep your details up to date

If you change your address or the bank account your railway pension is paid into - you can let us know via our website.

We need at least ten working days' notice before your pension payment is due to update your details in our system.

Important reminders

P60s

The 2020-21 tax year ends on 5 April 2021 and we will send you a P60 during April/May 2021 to confirm what you received during that tax year.

Tax codes

If you have any queries about your tax code, you should contact HM Revenue & Customs on 0300 200 3300 and quote your National Insurance number and tax reference 083/BRX1.

Annual pension increase

Any increase in your pension to reflect inflation would be payable from 12 April 2021.

If you are entitled to a pension increase, it will be included in your first pension payment after 12th April 2021, and you will receive a pension statement during April/May to confirm this.

Find more online!

You'll find useful information about your railway pension when you register at member.railwayspensions.co.uk or btpensions.co.uk

There are dedicated areas of the site for retired members, where you can find information about your benefits, useful contact details and your latest Penfriend newsletters.
